

Who Is My Neighbor?

A man once asked Jesus this question to get out of caring for someone — not because he wanted the real answer. Walk the same road he heard about, one stop at a time, and answer it for real.

1

BEFORE THE ROAD

Before today, when I heard “who is my neighbor,” I thought it meant...

2

WHERE TWO MEN WALKED PAST

A priest and a Levite both saw the hurt man and crossed to the other side. If I were walking that road, what's one reason I might be tempted to walk past too?

WHERE ONE MAN STOPPED

The Samaritan didn't just feel bad — he stopped, bandaged the man's wounds, and paid for what he needed. Name one person near me who could use that kind of help this week:

4

WHAT I CAN ACTUALLY DO

Not just “be nice” — what's one specific, real thing I can do for that person?

5

THE END OF THE ROAD

Jesus didn't ask "who is my neighbor" back — he asked "who acted like a neighbor?" This week, I want to be the one who...

"Go and do likewise." — Luke 10:37
